

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A MOTION OF CONTEMPT

BUTLER COUNTY DOMESTIC RELATIONS COURT

DISCLAIMER: This form has been provided to you as a public service of the Butler County Domestic Relations Court. If you choose to represent yourself and use this form, please understand that state law prohibits the staff of the Domestic Relations Court to provide legal advice. Local Rules of Court are available online at www.butlercountycourt.org. If you have questions regarding your legal rights, or your responsibilities, you must contact an attorney. You can call Legal Aid at 241-9400 or the Butler County Bar Association at 896-6671.

DEFINITION: Motions requesting a finding in contempt shall contain a statement of the Court order alleged to have been violated, and the facts constituting the violation.

STEPS FOR FILING A MOTION OF CONTEMPT

1. A Motion Form (Form DR726) must be completed. You are the moving party when you file a motion with the Court. The Case Management Office can provide you with your case number if you need assistance.
2. Choose the motion code and motion name from the Motion List (Form DR722) that is most appropriate to your situation. There are several contempt motions listed on the form for you to choose from. Staff of the Domestic Relations Court cannot provide assistance with choosing the appropriate motion.
3. In the space provided on the form, describe why you are filing the motion and what you want the Court to do. You must also specify within the body of your motion which child or children are at issue and their dates of birth, applicable.
4. If you want to file multiple contempt motions because you feel that the other party is violating multiple orders of the Court, you may do so. List each motion code and motion name separately. Explain in the spaces provided why you are filing each motion and what you want the Court to do.
5. You must attach a Summons and Order to Appear form (Form DR821) to your motion.
6. If you are filing a motion for contempt on non-payment support, you must obtain an affidavit of arrears from the Butler County Child Support Agency (CSEA) and attach it to your motion, or include a statement of the date the affidavit was requested and bring it with you to the hearing. You can contact the CSEA at 887-3362.

7. If you are filing a motion for contempt on non-payment of health care expenses, your motion must contain the following:
 - a. A statement regarding all amounts paid by insurance companies.
 - b. A statement regarding cash medical support paid, if known, and credited, if any.
 - c. A statement regarding the balance owed by the party(ies) for the medical bills after the insurance company payment and cash medical payments have been deducted from the outstanding balance.
 - d. A statement indicating the date the moving party sent his or her request to the opposing party for reimbursement.
 - e. A statement that copies of the health care bills and associated Explanation of Benefits, if in the moving party's possession, have been provided to the opposing party.
 - f. A statement that the respondent has not paid the amounts forwarded within thirty (30) days.

You must also prepare a separate itemization and chronological list of all bills for which payment is requested. The itemized list (Form C33) shall be presented to the Court as an exhibit at the time of the hearing and shall not be filed with Case Management or the Clerk of Court's office. The moving party shall send a copy of the itemized list to the opposing party no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the scheduled hearing.

8. After filling out the motion codes, motion names and reasons for why you are filing, you must obtain a hearing date, time, and location of hearing and name of hearing officer from the Case Management Office of the Domestic Relations Court. You can contact the Case Management Office at 887-3100 ext. 2.
9. All hearing dates are based upon the method of requested service. You need to choose which method of Service you would like Clerk to use when presenting your motion to the other party. The other party must be served with your motion before you can have your hearing.
10. After completing your motion paperwork, submit your motion to the Case Management Office for review and approval. Paperwork may be submitted via email at casemanagement@butlercountyohio.org or via fax 513-785-5337. The Case Management Office will determine if your motion complies with the Ohio Revised Code, Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules of Court.
11. After your motion is approved, you will need to file it with the Clerk of Courts' Office and pay the $115.00 filing fee. Please contact the Clerk of Courts at 887-3278 if you have any questions about methods of payment for filing fees.
12. After filing your motion with the Clerk of Courts, you must give a file stamped copy of your motion to the Case Management Office of the Domestic Relations

Court. If you do not provide a file stamped copy of your motion, your hearing will be canceled.

PREPARING FOR YOUR COURT HEARING:

1. Gather copies of any letter, notes, calendars or other materials that are related to your motion.
2. Bring two copies of each item with you. One is for the Court and one is for the other party.
3. Make arrangements to have witnesses, if applicable, present at your hearing. This may require you to subpoena those witnesses. Please contact the Clerk of Courts' Office at 887-3278 if you have any questions about filing a subpoena. The Court will not subpoena someone on your behalf.
4. Please be advised that the other party may have an attorney present. In contempt cases, the other party has the right to be represented by council and may request the Court to provide them with Court appointed council.
5. Each party will present their case to the hearing officer, who will either issue a decision at the time of the hearing, or take your case under advisement. A hearing officer has thirty (30) days to issue a decision on a case that has been taken under advisement.
